This dish is dynamite! Paleo meat-lovers will rave over this flavorful, Asian cuisine and the kids will be asking to make it again!

MADE AHEAD

- 2½" piece of fresh ginger, grated to yield 1½ Tablespoons
- Make meatballs; see steps 1 and 2 below
- Cut vegetables: onion, red pepper, fennel

DIRECTIONS

For Asian meatballs

1. In a large bowl, combine ground meat, onion, eggplant, fresh cilantro, grated ginger, egg, sea salt, and black pepper. Use your hand to really mix it up!
2. With wet hands, form into 1½ inch round meatballs. Makes 30-36. Can be made ahead up to this point and stored flat in Ziploc bag for up to 2 days.

4. Add meatballs and cook for 10 minutes, rotating sides frequently. Transfer meatballs to plate lined with paper towels.
5. On high heat, add butter to the bits and pieces of browned meatball still left in the pan. Whisk in flour, blend, and cook until mix becomes slightly brown, about 2 minutes. Whisk in remaining stock.
6. Reduce heat to medium-low. Cook for 2-3 minutes until sauce starts to thicken. Add cooked meatballs back into pan and simmer for 3 minutes, stirring frequently. Serve with sliced bell peppers and braised fennel.

For braised fennel

1. In a medium pan, heat olive oil over medium heat. Add fennel, garlic, and stock. Cover and cook for 20 minutes or until fennel is tender (If using cabbage, reduce cook time to 10 minutes).
2. Remove garlic clove and salt to taste.

INGREDIENTS:

(2) TUNA PUTTANESCA

butternut squash noodles & poached pears

Traditionally, this Italian pasta is made with anchovies. For a more family friendly meal, we have replaced them with fresh tuna steaks. Butternut squash noodles are a paleo favorite and a great way to bulk up a meal while enjoying a low-carb, high fiber nutritious meal.

Buon Appetito!

(4) BRAISED PEAR CHICKEN fennel and smashed potatoes

While the white potato contains about 620 mg of potassium, iron, natural fiber, vitamin b, c and 3 grams of easy to digest protein; they have gained a bad rap for being a "high glycemic" carbohydrate. All the while, these mounds of goodness were certainly around 10,000 years ago and should be embraced and enjoyed, in moderation.

MADE AHEAD

- Cut vegetables: fennel

DIRECTIONS

For braised pear chicken

1. In a large sauté pan, cook fennel in olive oil over medium heat until softened, about 5 minutes. Remove fennel and set aside.
2. Combine black pepper, sea salt, cumin and cayenne pepper in a small bowl. Season chicken with spice mix on all sides.
3. Arrange chicken, flesh side down, in the sauté pan and brown about 5 minutes. Turn the chicken over.
4. Add pears, stock, and reserved fennel. Do not stir. Cover and simmer for 15-20 minutes.

For smashed potatoes

1. Steam potatoes (with stovetop steamer insert) for 10 minutes until fork-tender. Let cool slightly.
2. Smash each potato flat with the back of a heavy spoon.
3. Toss potatoes with melted ghee butter. Add sea salt and pepper to taste.

INGREDIENTS

For braised pear chicken

- 1 medium fennel bulb (stalks removed), chopped
- 2 Tablespoons olive oil
- ½ teaspoon black pepper
- 1 teaspoon sea salt
- 1 teaspoon ground cumin
- ¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 8 chicken thighs, boneless, skinless
- 2 pears, peeled, cored and sliced
- 1½ cups gluten-free chicken stock

For smashed potatoes

- 2 pounds red new potatoes (small)
- 1 Tablespoon ghee butter
- Sea salt and pepper, to taste

(5) SPANISH TORTILLA

pear salad

I have fond memories of my first authentic tortilla in Barcelona, Spain—an easy and satisfying dish and a staple in Southern European households. Paired with a simple salad with basic vinaigrette, it is quite simply delicious.

DIRECTIONS:

For Spanish tortilla

1. Place a steamer insert in a large stock pot and add 1-2" of water.
2. Place potatoes in the steamer, cover, and steam over high heat for 10-12 minutes until just tender. Remove from heat, let cool slightly, and dice.
3. In a medium bowl, combine diced potatoes, onions, and ½ teaspoon sea salt.
4. Heat 2 Tablespoons of oil in a large non-stick frying pan over medium heat. Add potatoes and onions and reduce heat to low. Sauté, covered, for 5 minutes until onions soften.
5. In a large bowl, whisk eggs, ½ teaspoon sea salt, and water until frothy. Add the potato and onion mix to eggs and stir to coat all potatoes.
6. Wipe the inside of the frying pan clean with a paper towel.
7. Heat the remaining 2 Tablespoons of oil over high heat and pour in the egg mixture, tilting the pan back and forth for easy distribution. Using a rubber spatula, gently pull the cooked edges to the center of the pan allowing the uncooked egg to flow to the outside. Turn heat to low and cook until top is mostly set and bottom begins to brown.
8. Place a large plate over the frying pan and flip the pan and plate over together so the tortilla is on the plate. Carefully slide the tortilla back into the pan, with the browned side now facing up. Cook until bottom is also golden brown.
9. Allow to cool and set before cutting into wedges. Serve with salad.

For pear salad

Whisk dressing ingredients together in a large salad bowl. Add lettuce and toss well. Top with pears and walnuts (optional). Season with black pepper if desired.

For Spanish tortilla

6 red new potatoes
1 medium yellow onion, coarsely chopped
1 teaspoon sea salt, divided
4 Tablespoons olive oil, divided
7 eggs, slightly beaten
¼ cup water

For dressing

2 Tablespoons white wine vinegar
¼ teaspoon sea salt
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
3 Tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil

For pear salad

1 head Bibb lettuce (or romaine)
2 medium pears
Optional: ¼ cup walnuts or pecans, chopped
