(1) THE FRESH 20 PALEO BURGER

carrot slaw

You're not going to believe how juicy and flavorful these turkey burgers are! Impress the family tonight with these delicious burgers, loaded with veggies, spices and flavorful fresh ground turkey.

MADE AHEAD

- Cauliflower rice * see prep guide
- Cut vegetables: carrots, mushrooms, onion

DIRECTIONS

For the paleo buns

1. Pre-heat oven 400 degrees F.
2. Mix cauliflower rice with coconut flour, almond flour, eggs, garlic, and sea salt - stir to combine
3. Divide mixture into 8 portions; form each portion into a round, flat "bun." Place on a parchment lined baking sheet that has been lightly greased with coconut oil.
4. Bake for 15 minutes and then turn the oven to broil; cook for another 2-3 minutes or until light golden brown.
5. Remove from the oven and carefully transfer buns to a cooling rack.

For dressing

Whisk all ingredients together until smooth; use as condiment.

For The Fresh 20 paleo burgers

1. Heat outdoor grill.
2. Combine burger ingredients (turkey through pepper) in a large bowl, mix well.
3. Form mixture into four equal patties, about 1 inch thick. Gently indent the middle of each patty with your thumb, this helps the burgers remain flat while cooking.
4. Place burgers on preheated grill brushed with oil. Cook about 5 minutes per side or until cooked through and juices are no longer pink. Do not try to turn too early or they will stick. (Cooking indoors? Heat a grill pan or large nonstick sauté pan over high heat. Once hot add 1 Tablespoon of grapeseed oil and cook burgers until they are cooked through and juices are no longer pink.)
5. Spread one Tablespoon of dressing onto paleo bun. Top with burger and garnish with lettuce leaf and red onion.

For carrot slaw

1. In a medium bowl, combine garlic, vinegar, Herbes, honey, grapeseed oil, sea salt & pepper – stir to combine.
2. Add in shredded carrots and toss to combine.
3. Taste and adjust salt & pepper.

*Kitchen note: Most paleo experts do not shy away from animal fat - or beef for that matter. Use grass-fed ground beef instead of turkey if you prefer. The paleo buns are a great alternative to bread, but if you're short on time, feel free to use lettuce leaves or serve burgers over fresh spinach!

INGREDIENTS

*For paleo buns (or lettuce)see Kitchen Note

4 cups cauliflower rice *see prep guide
2 Tablespoons coconut flour
4 Tablespoons almond flour
4 eggs
1 teaspoon garlic, minced
½ teaspoon sea salt
¼ teaspoon coconut oil (greasing)

For dressing

4 Tablespoons balsamic vinegar
2 Tablespoons raw honey
¼ teaspoon gluten free Dijon mustard
¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper

For The Fresh 20 paleo burgers

1 pound fresh ground turkey (93/7) or grass-fed ground beef *see Kitchen Note
2 egg whites
1 Tablespoon lemon juice (½ lemon)
2 medium carrots, shredded
2/3 cup button mushrooms, wiped clean and chopped
2 garlic cloves, minced
6 fresh basil leaves, roughly chopped
2 teaspoons dried oregano
½ teaspoon sea salt
½ teaspoon ground black pepper

1 Tablespoon grapeseed oil
4 romaine lettuce leaves, whole
¼ red onion, thinly sliced

For carrot slaw

1 garlic clove, minced
1 Tablespoon white wine vinegar
1 teaspoon Herbes de Provence
2 teaspoons raw honey
1 Tablespoon grapeseed oil
½ teaspoon sea salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
6 medium carrots, shredded

(2) OVEN ROASTED COD

zucchini tomato ragout & roasted spaghetti squash

Served right out of the spaghetti squash, this paleo meal provides a fun and surprising presentation! What better way to serve healthy proteins and vegetables to your kids?!

MADE AHEAD

- Cut vegetables: zucchini, onion

DIRECTIONS

For oven roasted cod

1. Preheat oven to 450 degrees and place oven racks in the top third and center of the oven.
2. Brush the cod with olive oil and season with sea salt & black pepper; set aside.

For roasted spaghetti squash

1. With the oven at 450 degrees F, cover 2 baking sheets with aluminum foil.
2. Cut spaghetti squash in half lengthwise (see Kitchen Note) and scoop out seeds. Brush generously with olive oil and sprinkle with sea salt & pepper.
3. Place 4 squash halves, cut-side down, on baking sheets and roast for 45-60 minutes or until tender.

For zucchini and tomato ragout

1. In a medium bowl, toss zucchini, tomatoes, and onion with olive oil, lemon juice, garlic, oregano, and sea salt & pepper. In a large oven proof sauté pan or a shallow baking dish, arrange the vegetables in an even layer. Place into the oven on the middle rack and roast for 10 minutes.
2. Remove from the oven and place fish on top of the vegetables. Return to the top rack of the oven and roast the cod for 7 -10 minutes (depending on the thickness of your fish). Cod is done when it can be easily flaked through the center with a fork. Finish the fish with a squeeze of fresh lemon juice and chopped fresh parsley.
3. To serve, run a fork over the cut halves of the spaghetti squash to fluff the 'spaghetti.' Serve the baked cod & vegetables warm inside the spaghetti squash shells.

Kitchen Note:

If it is too challenging to cut the raw spaghetti squash in half, you can always roast it whole and then cut and remove seeds after it is cooked.

INGREDIENTS

For oven roasted cod

4 (6 oz) cod fillets, about 1½ pounds
2 Tablespoons olive oil
½ teaspoon sea salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper

For roasted spaghetti squash

2 medium spaghetti squash
2 Tablespoons olive oil
pinch of sea salt & pepper

For zucchini and tomato ragout

2 medium zucchini, cut into ¼ inch slices
½ pound of cherry tomatoes, about 2 cups
¼ medium red onion, thinly sliced
2 Tablespoons olive oil
2 teaspoons lemon juice (½ lemon)
2 clove of garlic, minced
2 teaspoons dried oregano
½ teaspoon sea salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
½ lemon (to squeeze over top of fish)
¼ cup chopped fresh flat leaf Italian parsley (¼ bunch)

(3) GARLIC LEMON CHICKEN

vegetable fried cauliflower rice

This dish is stellar! The lemon chicken is to die for and the cauliflower fried rice is the perfect paleo addition. If there is any chance for leftovers, the fried cauliflower rice tastes even better on day 2 and 3.

MADE AHEAD

- 2 cups cauliflower rice * see prep guide
- Cut vegetables: carrots, mushrooms, broccoli, onion, scallions

DIRECTIONS

For garlic lemon chicken

1. Rinse and pat dry chicken thighs. Heat a large frying pan over medium heat and add the oil and 1 Tablespoon ghee butter.
2. Generously season the chicken with sea salt and pepper.
3. When the ghee butter is foaming, drop in the thighs and fry (rotating all sides) until lightly browned. Reduce heat to medium-low.
4. Cover the pan with a lid or foil and leave the chicken to fry gently for 10-15 minutes, turning once or twice.
5. Melt remaining 1 Tablespoon ghee butter in a small microwave dish. Add garlic, lemon juice and parsley to butter; pour over chicken.
6. Remove from heat and let sit five minutes.
7. Reserve ¾ pound of chicken for Meal #4. Serve remaining chicken with veggie fried cauliflower rice.

For vegetable fried cauliflower rice

1. Heat a large, nonstick skillet over medium-high heat and add 1 Tablespoon oil. Whisk eggs and egg whites together in a small bowl. Once oil is hot add eggs, scramble, and set aside.
2. In the same large skillet, over medium heat, add remaining oil, onion, and scallion whites; stir to prevent burning. Once fragrant, about 15 seconds, add carrots, mushrooms, broccoli, and garlic, sauté for 3-4 minutes.
3. Add cauliflower rice, stir to combine, and sauté for 5-6 minutes or until tender and golden. Drizzle with raw organic coconut aminos or Bragg's liquid aminos. Add in cooked eggs, stirring to distribute evenly. Remove from heat and stir in scallion greens to finish.

INGREDIENTS

For garlic lemon chicken

2 pounds boneless, skinless chicken thighs
¼ cup olive oil

2 cups broccoli florets, chopped into small dice
1 garlic clove, minced
2 cups cauliflower rice * see prep guide
